Economic data remained broadly in line for the month. Manufacturing PMI stood at 57.5 (versus 58.1 in July) due to softening new business, output and rising competitive pressures. Services PMI rose to 60.9 (versus 60.3 in July) due to productivity gains and positive demand trends, notably in the domestic market. Monthly GST collections grew by 10% yoy at INR 1.75 trillion. Two-wheeler sales rose by 10% yoy as rural demand continues to revive while PV sales fell by 2.6% yoy from a high base last year. Power demand declined by 4.8% yoy as the monsoons reduced usage of cooling appliances, which use electricity the most. Credit growth slowed down to 13.6% yoy while air passenger demand grew by 6.6% yoy. On the policy front, the RBI has kept repo rates unchanged. Foreign exchange reserves rose to another all-time high at USD 684 bn.

The June quarter results season was a mixed one for the Indian market. Overall aggregate revenues for companies in Nifty 100 grew by 11.2% yoy, while EBITDA and PAT grew by 9.6% and 8.5% yoy respectively.

Indian markets remained buoyant in August, anchored by strong positive inflows from foreign investors and from domestic institutions for the 26th month running. We remain positive on the long-term prospects of the Indian economy.
